MAIDEN'S HOTEL,
ALIPUR ROAD,
DELHI 2 - 12 - 1911.

My dear Ramaswamyya

I herewith enclose a copy of the Royal Proclamation which is to be read on the 12th December. The Kanarese Translation has been sent to the Residency and has not been received back, though it has been approved. But I believe Mr. Lakshminarasappa and Venkat Rao have got a rough copy of it. Please have the English as well as the Kanarese copies of the Proclamation printed without any delay and have them sent to the Deputy Commissioners and other officers who are to hold the Durbars. It would perhaps be well if in addition to the copies sent through the Deputy Commissioners, Amildars and Assistant Commissioners in outstations are supplied with copies direct from Bangalore so as to ensure the Proclamation reaching them in time. The Deputy Commissioners may also be demi officially requested to make arrangements for the copies reaching Amildars and Assistant Commissioners in outstations in sufficient time before 12 O'clock on the 12th December.

The Proclamation and its translation should be kept confidential until they are read on 12th December.

Please acknowledge receipt of this letter by sending a wire

Yours sincerely

C. Balasundaram
